

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR WEIR BAPTIST CAMPS

Updated for 2010 – all camping sessions

WEIR BAPTIST CAMP IS A CHRISTIAN CAMP. The purpose is to introduce young people to Christ and to grow as Christians, and all activities and dress must be of a nature that would not detract from the purpose of the camp. The way we act and dress will be a testimony to our Lord.

If the following basic guidelines are broken, the young person breaking them may be asked to leave the camp and the parents or church will be responsible for furnishing transportation from camp.

- ▶ All campers are responsible to any camp sponsor, camp administration personnel, or staff.
- ▶ Campers are expected to remain for the full camping session and attend all classes, activities, and worship services unless ill. All illness must be reported to the camp nurse.
- ▶ Campers will remain in their cabins after “lights out”.
- ▶ There will be no possession or use of illegal drugs, alcohol, or tobacco on camp property.
  - ▲ Without exception, ALL medications, prescriptions, and non-prescriptions, will be given to the camp nurse or camp Emergency Medical Technician upon arrival at camp.
  - ▲ All medications will be dispensed by the camp nurse or EMT per printed dosage required.
  - ▲ Immediate expulsion will result from any violation of these medical rules.
- ▶ Dress is not to distract from the purpose or testimony of the camp.
  - ▲ All shirts and dresses must have sleeves and cover the front & back of the trunk of your body. No back, belly, or shoulders showing. No tank tops. This applies to girls & boys.
  - ▲ Shirts should not advertise secular bands, tobacco, alcohol, or drugs. Clothing that have words on them should reflect positive messages.

  - ▲ Colored shirt and shorts will be worn for all water games & slide.
  - ▲ Dress nicely for evening worship service.
  - ▲ Shoes must be worn at all times.

If any member of the staff asks you to change clothes, please do so without complaining.
